

A Free Weekend
Showcasing the Wealth of Geographical Opportunities for KS4 and A-level on the Isle of Purbeck in Dorset presented by

Leeson House

in conjunction with

Harrow House Residential Educational Facility

9th – 10th October 2010

Limited places available. To book:

email: schools@harrowhouse.co.uk / tel (Dawn or Sarah): 01929 424421

Free full board accommodation and a programme consisting of site visits, practical fieldwork sessions and talks. Programme to include:

Saturday 9th October	Sunday 10th October
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Introduction to opportunities for GCSE & A-level fieldwork on the Isle of Purbeck ● Visit to Lulworth Cove & Durdle Door: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - classic landforms and fieldwork for GCSE controlled assessments - A-level coastal processes ● Fieldwork in Swanage: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Swanbrook River - Flood alleviation scheme and coastal management in Swanage Bay ● Talk on the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site by member of the World Heritage Team 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Talk: Introduction to Studland Bay ● Practical fieldwork sessions at Studland Bay: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - vegetation succession - crowded coast ● Tour of Boscombe: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - urban rebranding following the construction of Boscombe Surf Reef Weekend organised to show the learning packages available from the new working partnership between Leeson House and Harrow House Residential Educational Facility.